

Autism

Many of the activities found on the Speech and Language, SEMH and Motor Skills pages may be useful for your child.

Free sensory planning with multisensory activities and messy play can be found here: <https://www.empoweringlittleminds.co.uk/resources-1>

Miss Gore has lots of additional resources linked to this area of need, such as Visual Timetables and Emotions Games. Please email her at c.gore@northcote.liverpool.sch.uk if you would like for her to send you some.
